THE COLUMBUS, DELAWARE & MARION RAILWAY COMPANY.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 2, 1913.

Mr. W. W. Fuller, Tp. Clerk,
Worthington, Ohio.

Dear Sir:-

Answering your letter of July 26th, with reference to putting voting booth in the south-east corner of Glenmary Park grounds, will just state that I have no objections in you doing so. Of coarse, I cannot say how long it might remain there, for I can only contract with anyone for the time only that I am Receiver for this Company. I do not think, however, that there would be any trouble with the new management who ever it may be, but of this, you would have to take your own chance,

Yours very truly,

Eli M. West

Receiver.
